Nick Peyton, GPSS Vice-President
Ben Golden, OGR Director
Rene Singleton, Advisor

III. Approval of Agenda

Joel moves to approve the agenda, Hannah seconds.

IV. Chairs Report

Tyler said he has been working to get Barak Obama here.
Hannah stated that he is basically her hero.
Joel said that ATN might be interested in helping bring him.
Tyler continued that we shouldn't talk around campus about it too much.

VI. OGR Director Report

Tuition waivers for veterans passed. Textbooks and student regent leg. Passed. Leg calling for more tech investment in edu. Passed. Tyler and Lee and possibly Joel are going down to WSL meeting in Olympia tomorrow. Meeting should be fairly small.

VII. ASUW BOD Liaison Report

Karl said they met again. Final decisions will be pushed off on the actions of the taskforce. Concerns were voiced over idea of committee capture that student senator would feel more devoted to committee and agenda than larger picture. A remedy might be weekly update from an appointed member. Joel asked if there were cost projections

yet. Karl said there wasn't yet. Joel wanted to know if we were going to separate with GPSS through this action. Karl said there was a disconnect among members of GPSS. Also, they still have a voice but no vote. Joel wanted to know who ASUW represents? Karl says there is discrepancy.

VIII. ASUW President Report

Hala and Lee not present. Karl said that we might have a ballot box on campus where you can drop absentee ballot. Tyler said maybe set up a Senate resolution?

IX. Old Business

Tyler talked about College Civics week and that we're working on a panel for fair elections Tuesday April 25th at 8pm.

Joel asked about a 8th district candidate forum? Ashleigh said she needed a time to ask for Burner? Tyler said we should do April 24 7pm. Joel wanted to know how much money we're getting for college civ week and Tyler said we didn't know yet. Lee is talking to Gregoire's office to do spend a day with a dawg.

X. New Business

Tyler says not too much is new right now. Tyler is still writing reports. Hannah said that we need to go to Olympia to give Dave Uptegrove his Valentine. Hannah and Phyllis are going to work on FAQ packets. Phyllis said that we could bring the band The Senate to come and play for Civics week.
